The President's Highest Ambition.

Judge Wardlow, Alfred Hager and Col. Daw. Special Diepatch to The N. Y. Teibare. has of South Carolina, this afternoon had an interview by appointment with President Johnson. They were estanied by W. H. Trescott, esq., who is here on wisele as Executive agent of that State.

The President, after the customary pre'iminaries of certion, invited them to be seated, when at once the ommenced by Judge Wardlew informing were a delegation from the State Conven-arollus, sent bither to present certain hat body. These memorials had been very associals of that body. These memorians and need very sortfalls considered in the Convention, and he believed they told exactly the truth. The President inquired the disect of the memorials. Judge Wardley informed; in that one of them was in behalf of Jefferson Davis, deplens. George A. Trenbelm and Gov.
